REMEMBERING...

Katie Kasinecz(right)

"Katie was the kind of friend who would do anything to make you smile. Her warm heart and contagious smile always brightened the room. Her friendship touched my heart and that's a blessing I'll never, ever forget."

-Carly Sterner.

To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children...to leave the world a better place...to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.

This is to have succeeded.

~Ralph Waldo Emerson

"Bobby Murphy showed utmost respect for anyone in his life. No amount of words can accurately describe his sterling personality or his competitive demeanor. He won the Student Government Association election for the role of President, he was a member of a school record setting relay, and he maintained a high grade point average in his major. His determination towards life and his outstanding character will never be forgotten."

- Brian Savard

Lauren Salvo (right)

Vic was a gregarious, enthusiastic, and passionate man, particularly when it came to music and, in the past decade, chess and golf. He recently became a grandfather and this new role in life pleased him beyond measure. He loved teaching at Susquehanna University and was energized by his students and his colleagues. He enjoyed sharing his wealth of knowledge with everyone, whether it was through the Study of Jazz class he created, through coaching chamber ensembles, or working one on one with trumpet players. He loved to play the trumpet every day, often practicing for several hours at sunrise before his teaching day began. Vic was a good friend, always caring and quick to make you laugh. All of his friends on campus and in the community will miss him a great deal.

-Dr. Valerie Martin

Justin Miller (left) with Jessica Farawell (right)

"He was just the greatest; he was so selfless, kind, loving, people like him do not come around too often. He had so much love and respect for his friends and especially his family. He always tried so hard at everything, whether it was running or school work, or his relationships with other people; he always put forth his best effort. Describing him in words does not even do him justice, but all I know is that everyone who knew him has some story about Justin that you can't help but smile about. Without him things have not and will not ever be the same and we all love and miss him terribly."

-Jessica Farawell

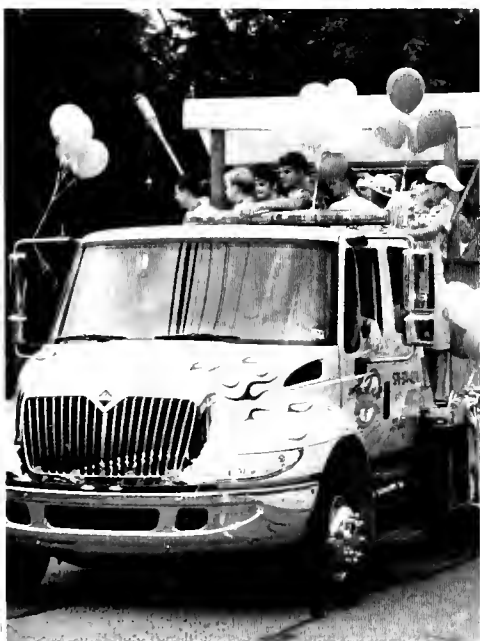

Homecoming

Homecoming brought a sense of school spirit that consumed the Susquehanna campus and the events were fun to take part in.

-Erica Kidd

Fall Frenzy

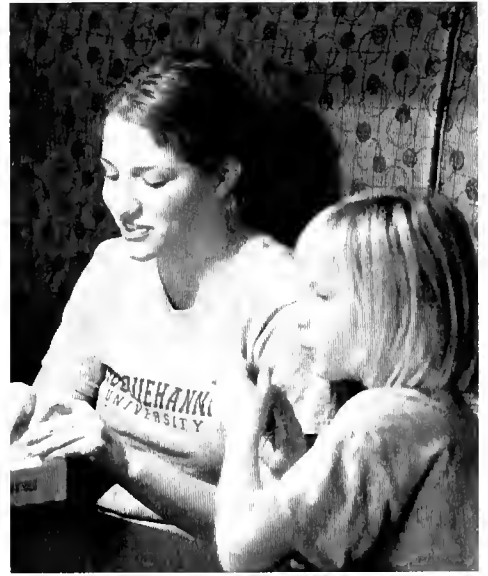

Fall Frenzy was a good time which provided the chance to get out, talk and just relax. -Scott Zimmerman

Fall '04 Study Abroad

Travel has a way of stretching the mind.
The stretch comes not from travel's immediate rewards, the inevitable myraid of new sights, smells and sounds, but with experiencing firsthand how others do differently what we believed to be the right and only way.

- Ralph Cranshaw

Study Abroad

"Traveling through the world produces a marvelous clarity in the judgment of men. We are all of us confined and enclosed within ourselves, and see no farther than the end of our nose."

- Michel de Montaigne

Spring '05 Study Abroad

"Traveling is not just seeing the new, it is also leaving behind. Not just opening doors; also closing them behind you, never to return. But the place you have left forever is always there for you to see whenever you shut your eyes."

-Jan Myrdal

From your earliest years you have always pursued your interests with determination. You set your goals and work towards them with hope and conviction, never swerving despite adversity and distractions. Learn to read? Go to Mexico to an International Center? Backpack through Europe? National and Regional ELCA youth events? Learn the baritone and how to march without band camp? Earn your Girl Scout Gold Award? Find and get in to your perfect college? Archive? Research? Write? Lead Chapel Council? Spend your Christmas vacation in service in South America? WHAT WILL YOU DO NEXT????

God has given you many gifts, and we have always delighted in watching you discover and use them.

Congratulations, you college graduate!

To Alice: The Apple of our Eyes

You began this incredible journey sixteen years ago at Maple Avenue Elementary School. What fascinating stops you've had, what wonderful traveling companions you've had along the way. Your eyes were always partly on the "now" and partly on the future, but always full of dreams. Your family--Mom, Dad and John-- feel so lucky to have been a part of that adventure.

Congratulations on reaching this point in your travels; it is an important one. Yet as you begin to take the next important steps, we are certain that the road will again rise to greet you, that you will continue to meet each new day with kindness and resolve, and that you will always keep your eyes focused on what is important: your dreams.

We love you!

Sarah Hunkins

Sarah, Sarah give me your answer due,
I'm half crazy all for the love of you!

From the hangle-burgers to the French-a-fries, to the "use mass-a-card Mama," to "I can't step on the crack Mama; I'll break your back." It just got better every year.

I wish I could help you avoid all the cracks in your life, but I can't. Thankfully, I'm not afraid for you, because you are an intelligent, wise beyond your years, common sense young woman. You know right from wrong, wise from foolish, and how to apply each to your life.

I trust in you to find your own way. The best part is, you'll enjoy and learn during the entire journey.

All my love always,
Mom

Sarah D.
We are so proud

All you've experienced in life has made you the loving and caring person you are today. We will forever be proud admiring parents.
